These are the spellings being practised on Spelling Shed this week

Adding -er to words ending e

Adding ‘er’ to words ending in ‘e’ with a consonant before it.
When a word ends with a ‘e’ and there is a consonant before that ‘e’ then…

…‘r’ is added straight on the end to create the /er/ sound

nicer
writer
baker
looser
safer
simpler

…‘d’ is added straight on the end to create the /ed/ sound hoped loved

…‘st’ is added straight on the end to create the /est/ sound largest closest