

'Romans': 'When you arise in the morning, think of what a precious privilege it is to be alive - to breathe, to think, to enjoy, to love.' Marcus Aurelius

Purpose: To create a film documentary on the Romans for publishing on Twitter. To design and bake bread as the Romans would have, on an outdoor fire.

Christian value: Thankfulness

Enrichment opportunities: Making a documentary using computing equipment and IT editing software, filming at Vindalonda and other Roman sites. Bake in a outdoor fire pit.

Subject	Content	Purpose
Computing	Range of digital devices – film-making and stop animation process including set design, characters and adding sounds Present data and information Search technologies Internet safety – running theme throughout	Prepare film for publishing
History	The mighty Roman Empire <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Children answer own questions about the Romans and plan a film documentary - Learn about the history of the Romans with particular emphasis on local Roman history 	Prepare and publish a documentary about the Romans
DT	Cooking 'The great Roman Bakeoff' – Roman breads are explored and created by the children. They will also design, create and evaluate their	Prepare a bread tasting feast for the community own breads They will also cook outdoors using our new bread oven.

RE	Thankfulness and friendship http://www.christianvalues4schools.org.uk/	Runs through the curriculum/ life of the school
Science	Animals, including Humans	Learn about human body
Music	Supported by materials from Charanga	To create a theme for the documentary
MFL	Colours/ numbers to 100 Fruits and vegetables Greetings Animals- pets Food/ French Café/ restaurant - ordering Members of the family Parts of the body The high street- comparing France and Cockermonth Directions and asking for directions
Games	Swimming/ Mini Rugby (Nathan)
PSHE	Going for goals , good to be me: following themes linked to SEALS
English	Range of fiction and Non-fiction writing linked to the Romans and DT	Support the voice over for the documentary and bread-making process.
Maths	Following maths mastery supported by Maths No Problem

